The man who never made a mistake isn't been born, but the man who hinks he has never made a mistake is with us often.

Even the fact that they have made a lot of money doesn't make some people good company.

MANY WOMEN USE GLYCERINE MIXTURE

Alliance women will be surprised at the INSTANT pleasant action of simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. One spoonful relieves ANY CASE gas on stomach or sour stomach. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel it often cures constipation and prevents appendicitis. One lady reports herself CURED of a bad case of bowel trouble and constipation. Harry Thiele druggist.

Parisian women are now smoking cigarettes rolled in paper dyed in delicate shades of rose, green or orange, to harmonize with their gowns. And the poor girls who can't afford them will have to dress in white, always.
A Parisian secess has peeked into the future and says 1921 will be an uneventful year, and, gosh! everybody hopes it will come true.

It is proposed that our public school teachers know more about hygiene so that they may be better able to judge of the ills of their pupils. It is perhaps unnecessary to explain that the proposal did not come from the pupils.

A Washington professor rises to inform all married men that their allusions to their better half are no longer a joke. As to many men, however, they never were a joke.

Nine hundred and seventy dollars was found in a boot that belonged to a man who was thought to have died penniless. It had been there since 1918, but the present is a time for leaving no boot unexplored.

The thief who stole 148 bottles of perfume from a drug store probably conforms to the custom of his profession of having several names, and now he can "smell as sweet" under any of them.
